A talk on Career opportunities was presented by Haneen Backer (Alumni), A research scholar, on the topic career opportunities in abroad, on 17-11-2017. It helped the students to nourish their knowledge with various opportunities of higher education in abroad. The dream of studying abroad is no longer a distant dream, which only a few chosen people can afford. Today with the number of education loans and scholarships on offer; international higher education is much more accessible. If you can submit proper documents; have a good academic track-record and meet the eligibility criteria set by the bank; an education loan is guaranteed. There is definitely a difference in the quality of education offered between India's premier educational institutions and international institutions of repute. With the various funding and scholarship opportunities available; it is definitely a better option to go abroad for higher studies. You may also choose to complete your basic undergraduate degree in India, secure a job, work for three to four years, save money and fund your postgraduate study abroad. To conclude, the benefits of an international education are many and help you build a secure future and career.
